

I have worked in the optical business for over 7 years and became a Certified Dispensing Optician in January 2012.

One of the things I love most about my job is that I am encouraged to go the extra mile for all of our clients. I am able to take the time to talk to them, find out who they are, what they need, and then provide them with eyewear that they love. Here I can achieve the level of attentiveness and customer satisfaction that I've always strived towards.

I enjoy the opportunities to hone my skills that this career presents. My desire for perfection and commitment to the highest level of quality possible fits in with Ann's philosophy and business. Working at Ann's gives me a daily sense of accomplishment. When we say "We serve you like royalty with warm and personalized attention" we mean it. Everything we do is geared towards making your experience the best it can possibly be.
